March 21, 1954 - September 11, 2021

Catherine Jean (McCann) Fox, 67, was born March 21, 1954 in Camden, TN., to Robert and Ada Jean (Churchwell) McCann and peacefully passed away Saturday, September 11, 2021 at her home in Fort Gibson, OK.

Catherine received her formal education at Camden High School, in Camden, TN and furthered her education graduating from the nursing program at Connors State College in 1999. Catherine loved all kinds of music, especially bluegrass. She loved to dance and lived life to the fullest. In all her years, she never met a stranger. Catherine had a love of sewing and crocheting. She would attend every sporting event her grandchildren played and was quick to get on the umpire at her grandson's baseball games. She was a wonderful mother and grandmother, someone her kids and grandkids could confide in on anything. She was feisty, quick to protect her family and had no problem working to make ends meet for her family. She was one of the golden girls from the neighborhood. She is missed and loved by everyone.

Catherine was preceded in death by her husband, Kenneth L Fox; her parents; brothers, Robert Cloyd McCann and Sam McCann; and her step-mom, Claire Herdford-McCann. Those left to cherish her memory are her daughter, Stacey Trotter; granddaughter, Allyson Trotter; grandson, Cody Trotter; son-in-law, Trevor Trotter; and her brother Morris McCann; extended family and many friends.
