“ The last visit I had with Mamma Adelle and Hudson was in 2014 at the Hard Rock Casino. I was there for a Leadership gathering and they both came to meet and visit with me. We had dessert while we visited and shared updates about family. It was a very pleasant and good visit. I appreciated them taking time to come see me. Mamma Adelle shared that she became known as the Hopi from Miskogee (sp?) I thought that was so cute. We shared chuckles and most of all expressed our love to one another. I will cherish that memory and now Mamma and Brother Hudson are together, may they rest in peace and have goodness to share about our efforts here in this life and most of all, know how much they were loved. Askwali. ❤️
