“ I have sat a few days in total sadness shock and disbelief... The years we spent as best friends were some of the greatest years of my life and ones I will hold dearest to my heart forever... I will forever be grateful for every memory we ever may, for our ups and for our downs... We learned allot about life together while growing up and I can't imagine doing any of it without you sis... I guess this is where I stop calling you Jazmine to get under ur skin and make u yank my hair out and just tell you I love Mandy, and you have always been enough just the way u are sis... so, until I see you again !

“ Prayers & love to the Evans & extended Evans families. I have the fondest memories of back when I used to babysit Mandy & her sister. Whether we were dancing to Mickey Mouse records or they were listening to me tell them made up silly bedtime stories or naming my first car, “The Booger Mobile,” we always had a lot of fun! Mandy was always the perfect mix of spunky & sweet.

“ You and I had a lot of fun and crazy times in high school. Always staying at your house or mine and running around ftg. One night at my house we were frying French fries and I slapped you on the arm w the fork! The hot fork! You were so mad you chased me around the house until I finally let you get me back w the hot fork. We both had fork burns for a week! We laughed so hard for so long over that. We went our separate ways as adults but I'll never forgot all the times we shared. Rest In Peace.

I didn't know Mandy personally, but she was a child to our good friend, and her Dad, Frank. My heart is broken for everyone who loved her. So sad. Rest In Peace, Mandy 🥺
