“ So many wonderful memories of Angela as first cousins growing up together: days at grandma's house playing in the flower shop, grandpa would take us skating and he would take us to the Minnow Bucket to buy candy. Spending weekends together as cousins was the highlight of our youth. And when a blizzard hit Bixby, the roads were too bad for them to drive home, but we were happy because we got to have a sleepover for five nights. We had huge family gatherings for Christmas. We went to vacation Bible school together at grandma's church and had lots of family fun together. When we got older, we didn't see each other as often but those ties and bonds formed as children never leave! She is a beautiful soul and will be missed by many.
