“ i'll never forget my last ever interaction with angel before she passed. i'm best friends with her daughter aayla and i have always been close with angel. aayla and i were walking with another friend but got really dehydrated and hot. (being that it was summer.) she found us and brought water and took us back home. i never would've guessed that it would be my last time seeing her. i'll never forget the way she always cared for me and complimented me. thoughts and prayers angel. we love and miss you so much. a red candle for when we stole your red hair dye haha.

“ I met Angie when she was 11 and was blessed to have her and her family move in next door soon after. Shortly after that my daughter was born and they became inseparable. Angie was a great role model and sister to her. I would often come home to either a full blown Barbie party or to my little 5yo dressed in black leather with her hair spiked a foot high! ❤️ LOL. We were one big happy family for years and then Angie grew up and started a beautiful family of her own. We will miss you Angie and you'll be in our Hearts forever.

“ The first time I saw Angie, I fell in love. I thought she was just a living doll. I was only 5 and growing up when she would be at Granny Parker's house I remember hearing her laugh. She was a beautiful lady with beautiful children. Angie you will always be that laughing little girl in my heart and you will be missed.
