She has hiked Yellowstone, Mount Rushmore, Carlsbad Caverns, and the Arizona Deserts. Being a true Christmas enthusiast, she really enjoyed shopping excursions during the holiday season to New York City and Branson.

“ On behalf of the Belle Cahoon family I wish to share deep and heartfelt condolences to all who knew and loved Ann. I had the pleasure of meeting Ann and Flint years ago when I was home visiting my mom Belle and attending church with her. It was always a joy to see them as together they openly shared abundant smiles, heartfelt hugs and genuine well wishes. They were a wonderful example of what a devoted and loving couple can be after many years of marriage. I will not easily forget Ann's lovely and striking blue eyes and soft, silky white hair that always looked perfect. Her gentle, sweet voice was soothing and her love of others always apparent. May the many ways she comforted and cared for others be returned now to somehow ease the loss of her. Much love and sympathies. Carolyn Cahoon Watts

Carolyn, thank you for the kind words. They ring so true. Flint and Ann were an exceptional couple who loved and adored their family. As Ann suffered through her illness, she was just as sweet and beautiful as ever. Her blue eyes will be missed but we have our memories that will last a life time.

With love, The Perry family

“ I remember growing up with Annie, and having Thanksgiving dinner with her and the family. She made the most wonderful pies - and always welcomed me and my sisters into her home. I will miss her dearly and take comfort knowing that she is in heaven.
