“ Miss Betty...when I told my 14 yr old daughter she passed, she cried. Betty would always come over to her and make such a fuss over her. Then she went to visit Betty with the church group. I hv been a far from perfect person in my life but Betty was one of very few who never made me feel judged. She had such a pure heart, she was beautiful inside and out. There are some people in life that make you feel like they were only on loan from heaven for a short time so that we can get a small glimpse of our Father's love, Betty is one of them. We could all learn a few things from the life of Betty Shirley Riley-Martin. Thank you Betty, for touching my life. I love you and I'll never forget you.

“ Betty was the sweetest lady and was so kind to everyone. She loved all the students she taught over the years and always upbeat and had something positive to share. Betty will be so missed but will be with loved ones in heaven. We love you Betty.

“ I first met Betty when my best friend Annabelle Rousselot began her residency at Country Gardens Assisted Living Center. It didnt require but a minute to realize that Betty was the brightest light in the room. Over the years we became good friends and I was so relieved that Annabelle's room was just next door. Not only did I enjoy my friendship with Betty, I relied on her quick mind and thoughtful ways, always keeping me informed of important issues related to my best friend when I could not be near. What an extraordinary woman was Betty Martin.

Betty was a friend and a.colleague. Working with her many years ago in library-media, I discovered how dedicated she was to bringing reading and research to children. I was delighted to resume our friendship in later years at family gatherings at the Parker's.
