“ We will fondly remember Billy George as a dear friend and an incredibly gifted man of faith that encouraged, inspired and comforted many with his compassionate and gentle ways. His tough exterior carried within earlier years of hard work on rural and military fields and leadership roles in the FAA, but could not easily hide the tenderness that lay beneath. Our beloved little church benefited greatly from his vast life experience, presence and purpose. We will not forget the beauty of his heartfelt words and deeds. He and Dana were incredible examples of a faithful, generous and loving team as parents, friends and Christian leaders. Mom Belle, Bob, Anne and I especially enjoyed many lively and cozy conversations shared with their family at church events or our homes. Trusting that the years of comfort he so easily gave to many of us will now surround the ones he loved most. With much love and deepest sympathies to Dana, Pam and Ann from the Belle Cahoon family

“ I am thankful for Bill Bailey serving on the Committee on Preparation for Ministry when I was under care as an inquirer and candidate. He was faithful and grace-full and he reached out with encouragement and care, offering helpful feedback and confirming my call. He is missed far beyond Fort Gibson. Sending love to Dana and all his relations from Louisville.

Today I just learned of the passing of Bill. Dana and family, my heart goes out to you. Bill was a kind, thoughtful man with a good sense of humor. While a college student summer 1969, We worked in the Logistics Service at FAA in the same division. Later as manager of his own division he hired me. Still can hear his description of logistics - box kicker, label licker. Those were the good old days. The irises raised by his family still flourish in my garden. An honor to have known him.
