“ My love, I still don't have many words to describe this emptiness I feel. You have been gone almost a month now, and this pain is something that will never go away. I will forever cherish our love, our memories, the good times and the hard times. Through everything, you were worth every minute, every second. I'm so proud of you, you are the strongest man I know. Stronger than oak wood baby lol My best friend, my soulmate, and forever my guardian angel. You will never be forgotten. I will wait for the day I can see you again, in Heaven. I know you're watching over me, I feel you with me everywhere I go.. and I know, you know, how much I love and miss you each and every day, my B-bear... 🐻 🤔 🙏 🗨

Forever yours, Tati Marie

“ I love a miss you bro!! This has been a lot harder on me than I would have expected!! But I know I'm not the only one!!! I'll never forget that laugh you used to have when you were a little kid and I can still hear your voice in my head saying Chaser!! I wish I would have reached out. I guess there was a reason why you have been on my mind so much lately before all of this happened. Take care of yourself up there bro and say hello to Mama up there for me. 🙏❤️

“ Lots of memories of Brandon, but one that comes to mind is of him being at my house, he was probably about 3 almost 4 and he and Jordan were hiding in a TV cabinet and they just thought that was so funny. Debbie I am so sorry for your loss! I am praying for you and Jason and that precious grandson.
