“ Bryan was an awesome young man. He was kind, considerate, always courteous. I always enjoyed visiting with him, when he would come into the Dr's office. His parents did an amazing job of raising him. He was a good man and will be missed by many, young and old. I am deeply saddened by his leaving. Please know that the family is in my thoughts and prayers.

“ I and my whole crew loved seeing Bryan at our store. Some would go out and pump gas or carry out His pop . He would always try to get me to come by and play guitars , or just talk of good times . We always enjoyed Him and will greatly miss Him . Hope we can play guitars in heaven together . Al and the crew at Kum & Go
