“ Judy and all Charles family & friends,

Charles will be missed here at the lumberyard. He was always busy building and fixing stuff. One of our favorite customers because of his friendly easy going style.

If he found out I was doing a project he always offered to come help me.

Judy, I will never forget the piece of serpentine glass I got to replace the broken one in your china cabinet. I was never as nervous on any glass job as I was the day we installed it. Could not believe we actually found a pattern for that glass in Tulsa,

I am so sorry for your loss. Time and the Lord will help heal this. Be strong.

Both of you are proven angels. “So also you have sorrow now, but I will see you again, and your hearts will rejoice, and no one will take your joy from you.” – John 16:22

“ Charlie was a amazing person. He was always there for me whenever I was feeling down or needed advice. He would tell me about his amazing stories of being in the military and talk about how he met Judy. Even though I wasn't related to him I would always think of him as family. It's sad to know he's gone now but I will always remember him and his stories and smile at all the memories I shared with him.

“ We didn't get to spend much time together but you were there for me in the passing of my father and I knew you were always a phone call away even when you were on the road. Aunt Judy I know will miss you bunches and I wish I could be there to comfort her , but just like you I am only that phone call away. You will be missed by several people. Prayers and love to the whole family.

“ Charlie was an incredible influence on my sons, his Grandsons, and I am so glad he was such a big part of our lives. He was one of the main reasons I chose to move to Oklahoma from California. He was always there when we needed advice or guidance or just someone to talk to. He was the backbone of our family and we all loved him dearly. We will never forget his kindness, his strength and the amazing amount of love he had for all of us and he will missed so much.

“ My Dad’s spirit lives on in my heart and always will, through sadness and grief pushes strength and perseverance. He has always been the voice of reason in my life, the heart of unconditional love, the mind that put others first, and the problem solver. My father knew Gods purpose in his life , and he pursued it with gentleness and patience. He cared about others dreams and aspirations and made sure to ask about them. When you were around my Dad you knew you were with a genuine caring human being who had something special. He mixed his vast array of knowledge with the ability to make people laugh and think deeply about life at the same time. He was lucky enough to meet Judy, the love of his life 50 years ago who he adored and cherished along with son David who evened out the family with two girls and two boys. Dad loved David and never gave up on hoping us children and later his grandchildren would live a clean, moral life filled with Gods guidance. The world has lost a great man, and the best father a girl could have, but truly his spirit lives on as his words are etched on my heart and the hearts of many. As our lives go on please think about the lessons he taught and never forget where you came from, who’s in charge, and where you’re going. You don’t have to try and make your life matter, it already matters more than you know. Just look up and you’ll know what I mean..
