I will miss getting to run into her in the stores and taking up space as we stood for an hour or more catching up on life. We didn't get to spend much time together as adults but we always enjoyed hanging out when we could. Our upwardbound days in school were alot of fun. You will be missed by many. Love you always. My heart goes out to mom, dad, Jay and kids and everyone else but be strong you all know that's what she would want. Love to you all and wish I could be there with you.
