“ Our Hero, Dennis Tucker was laid to rest today. The ceremony was beautiful! Thanks to the Patriot Guard of Oklahoma. These fine ladies and gentlemen made sure our Veteran was treated with the respect he earned while enlisted in the the U.S Air Force. I highly recommend if you want to send donations, please send them to Patriot Guard Riders. Thank you !

“ Dennis will be laid to rest at the Fort Gibson National Cemetery on Friday June 17, 2016 at 10:50 am. This is not a service. Friends and family will be gathering to say goodbye and pay our respects. Please join us at the cemetery and later this afternoon for a memorial picnic after the ceremony.

“ Dennis was a great friend. I will miss him dearly. He was a Vietnam veteran in the Air Force. He fought for our freedom and liberty in every aspect right up to his last breathe. He believed in the Chickamauga tribe traditions. The warriors of the Eastern Cherokee tribe

He was an artist, painted buffalo skulls and made traditional Spears and knives. In his last breathe, the sun shined on his face, pictures and artwork from friends and family surrounded him and the birds sang outside his window. As I let go of his hand, I looked out his front door and saw an Eastern box turtle with red eyes looking up at me. In my heart, I believe his spirit is reflected by the turtle. I will never forget the life lessons Dennis taught me and I thank him for being my friend.
