“ No Regrets

*For as long as I can remember, you were always so dear to my heart.
Now that I ponder all of my memories,
I realize there could never be too many before you had to part.
So many memories that make me smile or laugh,
but also the ones that made me fall apart.
As the tears stream down my face,
I'm remembering how I felt the last time I buckled you into my car,
or helped you button your shirt.
Oh, what I would give just to help you with your shoes
one more time,
or just to be able to kiss your forehead and pray it didn't hurt.
I could see in your eyes the pain and frustration that you suffered from,
knowing that you prayed to go, truly broke my heart.
But as I watched you take your last breath,
I felt an overwhelming sense of relief.
All your pain was over and you were entering Heaven's Gate.
Dad, I will always love and miss you.
Please know that you will forever remain in My Heart.
Your Daughter, Shana*
