“ *Dear Paula, children, grand children and his brother and sisters,
This is a very sad day for me and I will be with you in spirit at Duane's home-going celebration. I knew him well from when he was just a little tike. My goodness, he was a live wire that talked and begged and pleaded to do 10 things all at once with me. We had such great times and I loved him very much. Sadly, the last time we saw each other was in July 2006 when he and Maynard came to my Mother's funeral but I talked to him by phone last September. He loved all of you and was very proud of you. What a man you had in him, a real, solid, authentic man who loved people so much. I don't know how you can bear losing him so I am going to be praying for you all that God will console you and overshadow you with his loving care. As soon as I can get to South Bethel, I will stand at his grave and give thanks to God for him. This is a great loss to me too but nothing like it is to you. Be at peace. Duane is with the Lord. This is a time for all of us to recommit ourselves to God, in humility and joy and peace through our Lord Jesus Christ.*
