“ I remember Dwayne just “ loving” my little sister, Beckie when they were toddlers and in grade school. He lived just up the street from us, and later hung out with my step brother Hoss, running all around getting into mischief of one kind or another every summer.

Those memories bring a smile to my face, as I hope your memories will too. My deepest condolences.

“ Dwayne will be missed! He was a good neighbor and willing to help anyone. My husband and I thought a lot of Dwayne. Dwayne saw a copperhead in our yard and killed it straightaway. Charlie and Minnie, Dwayne's parents were good people. They would visit with my husband across the way after lawns were mowed, giving time to catch up with neighbors. To Dwayne's family, we extend our condolences! Praying comfort for each of you! Sincerely, Carroll (Bo) and Jan Bolinger
