

George Junior Durant

June 2, 1951 - July 11, 2023

George Junior Durant Jr was born on June 2, 1951, to George and Doretha Durant

in Sapulpa, OK.

George was raised in Dewey, OK and attended Dewey High School, where he was known for being a star-studded athlete. Showcasing his talents on the football field and the track team, as a senior, George was selected for the All-Conference Football team.

After high school, George moved to Wichita, KS for several years before returning to Dewey, OK and working for Dave Scott Concrete as a Cement Mason.

George was a countryman all his life. He enjoyed farming, training horses and dogs, and was known for his highly trained Doberman Pinschers, whom he would name after adult beverages "Slicks and Coors".

George lived in Dewey, OK until health issues resulted in him being moved to Muskogee Nursing Center in Muskogee, OK to receive care.

On July 11, 2023, God called George and he peacefully answered, ending his earthly journey to go home to his final resting place.

George was preceded in death by his parents, son Edward "Tyke" Ogans; 10 sisters

Mary Jane Strode, Emma Randon, Jesse Lee Jones, Ruby Lee Anderson, Dorothy

Ratliff, Berneice Ratliff, CoJuan Davis, Geraldine Heath, Oceola Anderson, Marie

Goff and 6 brothers, Leonard Durant, George "Homer" Durant Jr, Robert Lee Durant, Loyd Durant, Floyd Durant, and Oscar Durant.

He leaves to cherish his memory his children Kevin Durant of California, Corina

Durant-Pollard of South Carolina, Regina Durant of Texas, Shawn Ogans of Bartlesville, OK, and Bryan Hudson (Dorothy) of Tulsa, OK; two sisters Jackie Beavers of Tulsa, OK and Emma Lee Owens of Wichita, KS; along with a host

grandchildren, great-grandchildren, and other close family members and friends.
