“ It was a honor caring for Mr. Harvey. I often complimented his style of shirt. I especially loved a turquoise plaid one he wore. He would tell me I couldnt have his shirt no matter how often I mentioned it. The first holiday season I cared for him. I complimented Mrs. Harvey on her beautiful Thanksgiving scrub blouse. It had turkeys on it and was hand made. The very next time I saw them he tossed a bag to me. It was the beautiful Thanksgiving scrub top, finely pressed folded neatly. He said it was so I to stop trying to take his shirt. We got a laugh. My condolences to Mrs. Harvey & family.

“ Fly high, Glen. Rest in peace. I heard Glen was a tough Veteran and fought a good fight:):):) My prayers go out to the family/friends for the loss of Glen. Glen reward is in heaven, but his legacy remains on earth.

Peace, Love and Grace.

“ Uncle Glen, the fondest memories I have with you are the one's of when you would take me to Six Flags so I could be a part of the fun with Glenda and Tammy. Also, when I stayed almost the whole summer with Tammy and you would always give us money and tease us about “not telling” our parents about what we were out doing. I am glad to have these memories
