

J.W. Langton

J.W. was a Fort Gibson resident for 51 years. He graduated from Fort Gibson High School and furthered his education by attending Tulsa Barber College. He loved people and it showed by the 58 years that he owned and operated Roffler of Muskogee. J.W. was more than just a barber, he was a marriage counselor, a shoulder to lean on, someone to talk to, and most importantly, he was a friend. He married his best friend and the love of his life, Jarreldine Isom, on August 25, 1962, at Fort Gibson First Baptist Church and was happily married for over 60 years. J.W. proudly served his Country in the National Guard. He was a faithful member of First Baptist Church in Muskogee until his health wouldn't allow him to attend. J.W. loved being outdoors, working in his garden, hunting anything that breathed oxygen, and fishing. J.W. and Jerry loved to travel and eat out. Later in life when he was not able to dine inside, he and Jerry would still go out, but eat in the car just to see his friends and be around people. J.W. will be greatly missed by all that knew and loved him.

J.W. is preceded in death by his parents; sister, Kathleen Langton; nephew, Kevin Brannon; brother-in-law, Harold Brannon; son-in-law, Eric Petty; and his best friends, Jerry Echols and Bob Lewis.

“ Our deepest condolences to the family. I've known J.W. for most of my life. I first met J.W. at the Sportsman's Barber Shop located on Eastside Blvd. My dad and I use to go there to get our hair cuts. It was the early 60's. I remember there being 3 barbers at the time, J.W., Bob Lewis(a life-long friend to J.W.) and John Davis. I looked forward to going to get haircuts at this shop. They were always full and very busy. I remember the frequent banter and joking that went on between the barbers and often with their longtime customers. J.W. was very good at his trade, one of the best in my opinion. J.W. was blessed with the gift of gab and shared his wisdom, life experiences, opinions and his Lord and Savior with all that entered his place of business. I followed J.W. everytime he moved starting a new shop, he cut my boys hair until he retired. I appreciated his kindness, humility and friendship. Rest in peace my friend! Heaven received another piece of joy and happiness. ”
