“ It is with deep sorrow I feel upon learning of the death of my friend Jeff Locust. My heart goes out to his family and friends. I have known Jeff for 17 years and want to share my memories of what Jeff meant to me.... Jeff was always sweet and kind. He always greeted me with a big smile and hug. I try to rescue stray and abandoned dogs and many times I would pick Jeff up and we would drive around the back roads of Vian searching for dogs and if we found one Jeff and I would go place to place searching for the owners or a home for the dog... Jeff was always happy to help and did a lot of the foot work himself.... Several times I gave Jeff an arrow head for his help. He said, " I didn't have to give him anything for his help". He helped me," because he wanted to".... So with a broken heart I wanted to share my memory of Jeff with others and say farewell to a great guy, loving heart, so very much missed, bigger than life Teddy Bear. That was Jeff....
