“ Hi My Brother, I am going to miss you so much, I was not ready to let you go, but as Ann pointed out when God calls you home you have to go. I will always cherish our memories of our childhood and the generosity you always showed. Your sweet tea was the best in Oklahoma. I know Moma and Dardanella were waiting at the gate of heaven for you. I love you and fly with the Angels. Love Judy

“ Amy and Meagan I am so sorry for your loss. I remember I met Jerry when i was visiting my brother Danny and Meagan, he was picking up his partner in crime (Jackson). Jerry seemed like a good man, very respectful, and Jackson was so happy to see him. It was so cute, they both had a grin from ear to ear, it seemed like they were in their own little world, just them two, no one else mattered. I know my Jackson is going to miss his PaPa, and I feel so sad for him. PaPa's are supposed to be around to spoil and love, and teach the grandchildren all the cool stuff that no one else knows. My Jackson got cheated of all those moments, and Jerry has left us too soon to be able to be around for not only Jackson, but for Madison, and all the other family children that shared this man's love. I didn't know Jerry, but I see what a wonderful woman Meagan turned out to be as well as Amy, and this man is the reason they are who they are. Loving kind,giving, and supportive women. Sending my love,hugs, and prayers to all of Jerry's family, especially Amy,Meagan,Jackson and Madison. I love you
With deepest sympathy,

“ I will miss you my dear sweet brother. I have so many fond memories of us and I will cherish everyone of them. Especially the time you were trying to teach me how to chew tobacco. Yuck.
Rest In Peace Jimmy. I love you.
Your sister Linda
