“ Hadn't seen Joyce since 1970 just before I married and moved away. She was my very first boss after I graduated from Mr. Darrell's Cosmetology school with her sister Darlene! She was a sweet lady and treated me like family! I grew to know her, Lyle, David, Susan, and her mom and dad were all really sweet, kind people! Sending condolences to her family and friends.

“ Remembering fondly a talented hairdresser married to a talented barber once upon a time in Fort Gibson. It is incredible imagining the countless heads of hair Joyce’s gifted hands touched throughout the years. I feel fortunate to have been one of many young girls, long ago, who greatly appreciated her artistic talents.....thoughts and visions of prickly rollers, odorous perms, Bobbie pins, abundant hair spray and hair “teasing/ratting”, etc...the sights, sounds and smells of her quaint little home salon of the 1960 & 70s all linger in my memories of her. Much later on when I had the joy of seeing her again, she was always smiling, laughing, encouraging....just as I remembered her always helping her teenage customers to transform into our own “personal best” for graduation, banquets or any special occasion. Her artistry is forever captured on treasured photographs that grace many of our homes. Wishing her family and friends much comforting peace and heartfelt sympathies now as recalling special moments shared with our forever, beloved, hometown beautician..... Carolyn Cahoon Watts

“ So many great memories happened spending time with Aunt Joyce. As a kid, spending time in her beauty shop was the most fun. Andrea and I would get in trouble for making a mess in the shop, and end up having to polish the furniture as well as the house plants with mayonnaise. Aunt Joyce would sing a song V-A-C-A-T-I-O-N, we're on vacation, having a ball. But she'd sing it at home, lol. She was the glue that tried to keep everyone together as a family. Joyce will be truly missed by all that knew her. I love you aunt Joyce ❤️
