“ I moved to Muskogee in 1973. Our house was on Jefferson St. I was 7 years old and new to the area. While moving in I noticed a girl who looked about my age across the street playing. By the end of the week we were best friends. The first time I ever went camping was with you and your parents. We spent every day together until I moved away. You were my first friend here, that makes you my oldest friend. Fly high old friend.

“ Me and kathy made a lot of memories but their is one that comes to mind every time i think of her. Now just imagine 2 big girls who loced their soda pop. Obe day we had no pop money and we were craving a pop. We scraped and raked and got enough change to walk to 7-11 and get a super big gulp. Coming back feom the store as we were walking up the little incline to get in her yard, kathy slips and falls. I am trying to ask her if she is ok when all of a sudden she gwts up, holds the pop as high in the air as she could and through our laughter proclaims Sister i didn't spill the pop. She was correct. Despite a crazy fall that should have caused her to spill all the pop, she held on tight and saved the pop and our day. We would always tell that story to anyone who would listen and it brought us lots of laughter and enjoyment through the years. Kathy Pauline, you will be missed by many but your Sissy will miss you so much and im so sorry. Kids iff yall need anything dont hesitate to call
