“ Larry was my landlord for 9 years. He was the best landlord that I ever had. I consider him a good friend. He was a caring and compassionate man. I will miss him.

“ I remember as a kid, when Buddy, Jean, and Larry would come to Oklahoma for a visit at Poppa " George" Cooks in the summer. That was the first time, I met Our Yankee Cousin. I had trouble understanding that New York accent, being the little redneck Okie. He was a very nice Guy and fun to run into and visit from time to time. RIP, Cuz !

“ Dear Bill and Wanda,
I am so sorry to hear of Larry's passing.
One of my fondness childhood memories are those family visits to Rossiter Ave. with mom & dad on Sunday afternoons.
As a young boy, I would often take the drive with Larry to pick up and drop off Uncle Herbie; that was such a big deal and I couldn't wait for the day I would be old enough to drive and pick up Uncle Herbie on the day's (Poppie Prince) would visit our home for Tuesday evening super.
May his spirit live on in your memories and heart.

“ I was so sad to learn of Larry’s passing. I last saw him a few weeks ago at the post office where we quickly caught up on family and hometown news. His New York accent was always familiar and pleasing, for it reminded me of my dad’s “eastern” one. During the 1940s our WW2 “Yankee” fathers found themselves assigned to Camp Gruber, meeting and marrying our mothers who were “country” girls from Fort Gibson. I always loved hearing stories shared between Buddy, Marilyn Jean and my mom Belle about those days. We also enjoyed many visits with Larry at FTG Presbyterian church throughout the years. He was friendly, kind and interested in others. I recall fondly him finding much joy in being with and helping his parents, family or anyone needing assistance. We shared in enjoying the company of children and dogs. Wishing much loving peace to all who knew and loved Larry. With heartfelt sympathies, Carolyn Cahoon Watts
