“ Celebrating the life of my lifelong friend and mentor, Mrs. Wasson, was my pleasure today. I loved seeing her beautiful likeness in the video remembrance, and singing the hand-picked hymns. I shed tears of emotion, not of sorrow, but emotion. As I saw the pictures, I thought to myself, "This is how a beautiful life looks when lived". Her example, in taking time for me as a young girl with my horses, will live with me always. I can't say how much it meant to me and what a difference horses and people such as "Boot" made. She was always ready to lend a hand in my life as a youth and seemed to enjoy having me around. Experiences like that are irreplaceable and her soul has my forever gratitude. May those in her family, and church family, be comforted. If ever I can help, please call on me. I loved this wonderful woman. Sincerely, Kimberlee Isom-Thomas.
