“ Auntie Mary, my dad's sister, was one heckuva bowler in her day! She always had a smile, and loved making kielfies and palachinka for her family. Although we lived in northern Indiana, we made frequent drives to Muskogee to visit our family. Many Thanksgivings spend at their home. God has gained another soul, and we have another angel to pray for us! Rest In Peace, Auntie Mary - and may Perpetual Light shine upon you.
