“ I want to tell Mary Lavonne's family how very sorry i am learning of her death. From the time i first lived in Ft. Gibson she was always a friend. That might sound trivial, but since I didn't go to school there, not many people took the time to be a friend. She did. You have lost a dear lady. I am sadden at this passing and pray the good Lord gives you peace.

“ I am deeply saddened to learn of Mary Lavonnes passing. What a lovely, joyful, kind and generous lady. It is not at all surprising, as she was raised by such well respected parents who were affectionately known in Fort Gibson and fondly remembered for their integrity, and warm compassion for all...I have many favorite childhood memories of the Langston family. We attended the same church, they lived in one of the oldest and most beautiful homes (door always open to everyone) and were inspirational role models to so many in our small town. Mary always had abundant smiles, kind words and time to share with you that you always felt better spending any amount of time with her. She often shared how much she felt deeply connected to and loved spending treasured time “in the country” with our Brown family at the old home place and farm which meant so much to her. In these later years, when passing by her family home in Fort Gibson, my mother Belle and I would always wave when seeing her out on the porch. Finally stopping to visit one time would be a lasting joy, as many stories were shared between them of those sentimental early days. I will continue to think of her each day as I pass by remembering the love that resided there and many wonderful times we were invited in!!! Many heartfelt sympathies to all her family and those lucky enough to have known this incredibly sweet and loving woman. With much love, Carolyn Cahoon Watts

“ Mary was the greatest and kindest lady I have ever known. She always met you with a big smile and hug, such a loving caring soul. I will miss getting to visit with her. The world is running out of great people like Mary. Will never forget her. Love and prayers for Mary and all her loved ones, especially Alan who I know is going to sure miss her.
