

Pamela Alice Rogers

October 15, 1958 - January 5, 2026

Pamela Alice Rogers, 67, of Afton, Oklahoma, born October 15, 1958 to Dean and Alice Baker in Siloam Springs, Arkansas, passed away Monday, January 5, 2026, in Tulsa with her loving family by her side.

From the beginning of her life Pam carried a quiet strength, creativity, and devotion to family that would define her journey. Pam had a warm spirit and a generous heart, always finding purpose in caring for others and creating beauty in the world around her.

Throughout her life, Pam embraced many occupations, each reflecting her adaptability, compassion, and work ethic. She worked as a waitress, where her friendly nature made everyone feel welcome; as a security officer, offering steady reliability; as a veterinary assistant, where her love for animals shone brightly; and as a graphic artist, expressing her creative talents. Above all, Pam cherished her role as a homemaker, finding her greatest fulfillment in nurturing her family and making a house feel like home.

Pam's hobbies and interests were as rich and varied as her life. She found great joy in crafting, sewing, and quilt making, often pouring love and intention into every stitch. She was skilled in sewing machine repair, a talent she gladly shared with others. Pam also had a deep appreciation for gardening and herbal medicine, enjoying the peace and purpose found in working with the earth. Her Torah study was a meaningful part of her life, reflecting her desire for spiritual growth, understanding, and connection.

Pam will be remembered for her devotion to God, gentle wisdom, creativity, and unwavering dedication to her family. Her presence brought comfort, her hands created beauty, and her love left a lasting imprint on all who knew her. Pam was preceded in death by her parents, Arnold Dean Baker and Adeline Alice Harlow; her beloved son, Kelly Lindsey; and her brother, Anthony Dean Baker.

Those left to cherish her memory include her loving husband, Larry Rogers; her children, Nathan Lindsey, James Rogers, and Shelly Smith; her sister, Nancy Linda January; her brother, Arnold Dwight Baker; fourteen grandchildren; and fifteen great-grandchildren, all of whom were a constant source of pride and joy in her life.

A celebration of Pam's life will be held 1:00 PM Tuesday, January 20, 2026, at Clifford D Garrett Family Funeral Home Chapel in Fort Gibson, Oklahoma with Donnie January, Jr. officiating and James Rogers, Paul Estrada, Dennis Harlien, Jerry Barnard, Jeff Baker, and Sid Baker serving as Honorary Casket Bearers. Committal Services will follow at 2:30 PM at Fort Gibson National Cemetery.

The family of Pamela Rogers has entrusted her care, service and burial to Clifford D Garrett Family Funeral Home, Fort Gibson. 918-478-2555.

“ Over 20 some years of making 'memories', too many to list, I will always remember the last one. The morning Pam passed, I dreamt of her in her hospital bed and a beautiful Angel kissed her on her forehead and said "It's time to go"...then I woke up. I will truly miss my sewing buddy.
