“ Pat Nobles was my College art teacher at Wayland Baptist from 1971-1975. He taught me so much and allowed me to get various art assignments that paid well during my tenure at Wayland. Plus he taught me how to repair vases and figurines. He was an excellent teacher and human being. RIP.

“ Pat! What a beloved brother-in-law! I will never forget when you and my sister Mary got married. I had never seen her so beautiful and happy. Thank you Pat for bringing so much happiness into her life. She always said you were the “Love Of Her Life, And Her Soul Mate”. You are really going to be missed by all of those who loved you! Rest In peace dear one!
