“ James and Tracy, your mom was a terrific lady. Lots of precious memories I have of working with her at the VA hospital, fiscal and pharmacy. My heart was so sad to hear she passed but she is more alive now than here on this earth. My heart breaks for each of you, it is a hard time. Holly shared the picture of me and Pat, thank you, I saved it. God bless and my prayers are with you. Beverly newton

“ Patsy was my good friend all the way back to Midwest City Schools. We would go back to our HS Reunions together! My kids loved to visit Patsy and her family in Muskogee because her barn was always full of animals and birds! She was a great person who loved to laugh and she will be missed by all of us!!!! Sending love and hugs to her whole family!!!! Pat Haarbauer

“ Patsy and I worked together at the VA in the late 70's early 80's. She was so quick witted and kept me laughing. I remember her putting funny captions to my pictures of our coworkers bowling league expressions and bowling style!! Her kids were young and she always brought them with her and Jimmy. We had fun! I'm so glad we worked together and became friends with her and Tracy. So thankful she had Tracy to help her particularly after Jimmy was gone.
