September 10, 1965 - October 9, 2015

"Greg O'Hagan, beloved husband, father, son, brother and friend died October 9, 2015 at the age of 50. Born September 10, 1965, Greg grew up in Irving, Texas. He attended Holy Family Elementary and Cistercian Preparatory Academy. Greg was gifted athletically, intellectually and with leadership. He was an all-state athlete in football, soccer and track. The first time he stepped on a football field his freshman year of high school, he booted a 48-yard field goal which won the game. He was the first player to crack 1,000 yards rushing in a season at Cistercian. In addition to being captain, he was senior class president. Following high school, Greg attended the University of Texas where he became a lifelong Longhorn fan. After graduation, he spent many years working in the semi-conductor and insurance sales industries. Greg married Mary Nelms on Texas/OU weekend 1995. Together they had two precious daughters, Clare and Katie. Greg loved his family, friends, dogs, Longhorn football, building and fixing things, playing guitar, working on cars, and listening to "The Ticket." He is survived by his wife and two daughters; parents: Patrick and Patricia Hasler O'Hagan; three siblings, Chris, Shannon (Al Lopez) and John. Additionally, there are numerous uncles, cousins, nieces, nephews, sisters-in-law and brothers-in law, and mother and father in law. He was loved by many. A special thanks to Uncle John Hasler for his amazing friendship and support. In lieu of flowers, please make donations to Cistercian Prep School or Ursuline Academy in Greg O'Hagan's name."

“ Mary- I am thinking of you and your beautiful girls. My heart goes out to you. Greg was a true friend to me and I miss him like crazy now. He made me laugh and always had a kind word to say. He was the happiest marrying you and becoming a father. He will be greatly missed.

With love,

“ I learned of Greg's death recently. I was very fortunate to know him for a brief time while attending Cistercian Prep over 30 years ago. But in that brief time, I never forgot the great, Greg O'Hagan. Yes, he was a gifted athlete and a great person. We all knew that. But the one thing I remember most about Greg was how humble he was. I can truly say it was an honor to play on the same field with him in soccer. His presence made me work harder and become a better player. At the end of the day, I was just glad he was on our team and not the opponent. My prayers go out to the entire O'Hagan Family. I am so sorry for your loss. And my prayers go out to the entire Cistercian Prep Family. Greg may be gone, but his spirit will always be with you.

God Bless everyone during this difficult time.

“ My nephew, my friend, my hero! The last few months have been incredible, almost surreal. Faith, trust, confidence and love...family...Greg helped reinforce these even more so in my life. My love and prayers are with Mary and their girls, Pat, Pat, Chris, John Joseph and Connor, and Shannon and Alex and their children and the extended O'Hagan and Hasler families.

Greg tagged himself to me with a nickname for himself: VANILLA GORILLA...good job #20...Hook 'Em Horns!
