

Sharon Marlene Huffaker

July 17, 1938 - March 20, 2017

Sharon Marlene (Cook) Huffaker, 78, of Fort Gibson was born July 17, 1938 in St Bernice, Indiana to Earl and Gladys (Bunton) Cook, and peacefully passed away Monday, March 20, 2017 at her home with her family by her side.

Sharon grew up in Indiana where she received her formal education, graduating Valedictorian of the Jasonville, Indiana High School class of 1956. She spent many years serving people at her job as an account manager at the First National Bank in Paris, IL.

Sharon enjoyed travelling, being outdoors and reading a good book. But, her first and most precious love was her family. Every holiday, birthday, or simple get together was an opportunity to create wonderful memories, that we will cherish forever.

She is lovingly survived by three daughters, Cathy of Kentucky, Mary of Oklahoma and Carol of Florida; son, Brent of Colorado; three sisters, Clara of Indiana, Joan of Indiana and Betty of Illinois; brother, Harry of Indiana; eight grandchildren; six great-grandchildren; many nieces, nephews, cousins and many friends.

Committal prayers and interment of Sharon's ashes will be in the Friend's Chapel Cemetery in Scotland, Illinois at a later date.

My husband Kenny Brunner and Karen Brunner are sending our condolences to the family of Sharon Huffaker. We were close to her as we shared grandchildren Forrest and Olivia. We did quite a few things with her and thought so much of her. Thinking of her today and the family. We love you all. Kenny and Karen Brunner

Sharon and Gordy always treated everyone like family. Sharon always had a smile on her face, I think it was because she lived with Gordy for so long. May she rest in peace by joining Gordy again and look down on her family and keep them in good hands.. Sorry for the family's loss. Thoughts and prayers.
