“ So sorry for your loss Darrell; my condolences to you and the rest of your mom's family. I didn't get to be with my cousin Kay much growing up, but my brother and I always enjoyed being with her when we did. After we were grown, I always enjoyed when she, with you and your brothers, would come to visit my family and me with her dad (my Uncle J.D). Love and prayers for all of you during this time of sorrow!

“ My condolences to Darrel and everyone closest to Grandma Kay, she was my fathers mother and though I have not been close with family for quite some time I will always have great memories with her. I remember when I got my first pair of glasses in about 3rd or 4th grade I was at her apartment early in the morning because she would walk me to my bus stop and wait with me every morning while my mom was working, I know I was worried about other kids making fun of me and she did her signature laugh (everyone can hear it now I'm sure!) and said “oh you look like me now! Like a little Roger jr.! Tell those kids they can shove it!” And then chuckled some more. Her laugh was one I don't think anyone who has had the honor to meet her would ever forget! She would always watch Sailor Moon with me before school that year and repaint her nails at her kitchen table that always had the seasonal table cloths. She was always such a neat lady and had so many puzzles and fun games to play when I'd be there with cousins Hannah and Olivia. I've been out of state a lot off and on since having my youngest daughters but she did get to meet my oldest and I'll never forget her first time seeing her with all her newborn hair and chubby baby face and how she cooed over her about looking like my dad as a baby. ❤️
