

Suzanne R. Caudle

December 3, 1951 - November 11, 2023

Suzanne Ruth Caudle, 71, of Broken Arrow, OK was born December 3, 1951, in Youngstown, Pennsylvania to Winston and Mildred (Snyder) Kenneson and peacefully passed away, Saturday, November 11, 2023, in Fort Gibson, OK.

Every Christmas with the money she saved up over the year she would bake holiday treats. Cookies and breads like thumbprints, sugar cookies, pumpkin, banana nut, and several types of fudge to put in baskets. Some years she would make up to 50 baskets, delivering them to people she knew and some she never knew, including coworkers, policemen, mailmen, trashmen, even a guy sitting outside of the store that you knew hadn't had much to eat for days. Jonathan remembers helping her with the baking, if for no other reason than to steal a taste of the sweet treats. We can still picture her in the kitchen making her baskets full of goodies. Suzanne with her mixing bowls lined up, ready for use. Her two rolling pins, one wooden for rolling, the second heavy metal, to defend her goods from the vultures ready to pounce. This is one of the fondest memories we have of our mother, everyone wishes she was here now so she could at least tell us how make all the good treats she made.

Suzanne was preceded in death by her parents.

She is lovingly survived by her sons, Jonathan Caudle of Broken Arrow, and Jesse Caudle of Alaska; and grandsons, Brady and Blaze Caudle; extended family and many friends.

A memorial service will be held at a later date.
