

Terese "Teri" Marie Tebbutt

September 10, 1961 - June 5, 2020

Terese 'Teri' Marie Tebbutt, 58, of Fort Gibson was born September 10, 1961 in Long Beach, CA to Matthew and Diana (Forsythe) Lindsey and peacefully passed away on Friday, June 5, 2020 in Tulsa, OK.

Teri grew up in Paramount, California where she attended school. She met, fell in love with, and later married her best friend, Mikel Tebbutt on February 4, 1983 in Long Beach. They made Long Beach their home for 34 years and called Fort Gibson home for the last three years. Not only did she live for the joy of raising her own 3 children, she had plenty left over to bless the families and children of her church. She served her church for 26 years in the nursery and preschool. She later continued her education with a certification in Early Childhood Education. After moving to Fort Gibson, OK., she took a position at 4 Mile Stop & Café as a cook. She was a friend to everyone and loved to serve others. She worked tirelessly at everything she did. Teri loved spending time with her 4 grandkids who called her "Mommer and Peach". She was a crafter and loved the holidays. Friends and family meant the entire world. She loved joking around with people, just to get a smile and comfort them. She was an avid gardener, black and white movie junkie, and loved Rock'n'Roll. Teri loved orange slices and Swedish fish were her favorite. She could eat potatoes in any form and loved crunching ice cubes. She was a servant of God and loved every minute of it. She was completely selfless to the very end. Teri is preceded in death by her mother Diana Lindsey.

Those left to cherish her memory are her husband, Mikel of the home;

daughter, Lindsey Stern and husband Larry of Fort Gibson, OK; son, Noah Tebbutt and wife Ashley of Long Beach, CA; daughter, Cori Kimminau and husband Brandon of San Antonio, TX; her father, Matthew Lindsey of Des Moines, IA; Aunt, Sheila Hernandez of Los Alamitos, CA; granddaughter, Brooklynn Stern of Fort Gibson, OK; grandsons, Lane, Landon and Levi Stern all of Fort Gibson, OK; sister, Peri Halma and husband John of Des Moines, IA; along with her nephews, Dustin Halma of Des Moines, IA, Daniel Halma of Kansas City, KS, Mark Halma of Denver, CO, mother in law Phyllis Tebbutt of Cerritos, CA; sister in law, Tori Tebbutt of Corona, CA; nephew, Andy Lane of Corona, CA; niece, Alysa Mugica of Corona, CA; and many friends.

“ My last visit with Teri was a wonderful afternoon sharing a cup of tea and cake. She was so happy to finally be able to do something "normal"! It was nice for both of us, as we had both transplanted ourselves to a new location to be near family, which we enjoyed, but we missed our prior lives, locations and friends. We longed for local friends. She told me how she and her grandmother used to have tea parties and her grandmother made her pearl tea (it had milk in it). She loved that time and it was a special memory for her. It is now a special memory for me. I fixed myself a cup of pearl tea today and thought of my friend who was in my life for too short a time. I will miss you, dear lady. To her family - you are in my prayers. You have lost a bright light. Raise a cup of pearl tea in her memory!
