“ *"Cookie" as her mother and I called her was born 10 months after me. we were babies, toddlers, little girls and thru high school, close sisters. Throughout our lives stayed connected by phone and an occasional visit. She was the most loving friend I have known and I look forward to our reunion in Heaven. I love you, Cookie. “ I'll always be grateful to my Auntie Dee who came immediately to stay with my boys when their father was dying and I had to go to him in San Diego. Ironically, Chuck was living near San Diego so he took care of me there, trying to find which hospital my husband was in (in the days before cell phones), while Auntie Dee looked after my sons at home. When she was in the hospital recently, before she got confused, I had a chance to thank her again for doing that and we had such a nice visit. I treasure that day and will always remember how she (and Chuck) came to my aid at a tragic time in my life. At one time in her life and travels, Auntie Dee dabbled in ceramics. She made me a beautiful Easter egg plate that I put out every year. She is the last sibling in her family (our Dad was her oldest brother) and she seemed to understand why my sisters and I were always asking her the family history questions, having already lost both our parents. And she said if she couldn't remember the answers to our questions, she would just make something up, and that was ok with us. We treasured her last couple of years on Earth and look forward to seeing her again.

“ My Auntie Dee ❤️ so many wonderful memories of her.... She was always happy and smiling... always doing for others. She and Uncle Jay and my parents had great times in their "after the kids left" years, traveling around the country in their Boudner motorhomes. I have a few special memories of Auntie Dee - shown with my attached pictures. The last picture I have of her with the family - last Easter 2023. Her pottery Christmas tree she made, and gave to me after the flood of Marysville in 1986. Their storage unit had flooded and they lost most everything...but this little Christmas tree. I can still find silt in the crevasses, even though we cleaned it. I still put it out every year. And lastly, the beautiful China Uncle Jay brought back from Japan...he brought a set back for mom. We NEVER used it, as I think mom was afraid of breaking it. When mom passed, we each took two settings to use. It is now a staple at my Thanksgiving and Christmas tables. Auntie Dee was so happy we all still use it. I sure do love my Auntie Dee and always will. She is in Heaven now....can't wait to see her again. 💖 her niece, Donna Jennings

“ I didn't get to know Auntie Dee well when I was young. But as an adult, I visited her often for the past 24 years. She told me so many stories (some I can't repeat here!)! We never ran out of things to talk about. She told me that when my dad (her oldest brother, Earl) brought his new bride (my mom, Jean) to California from Texas, she was prepared to not like that "hick from the sticks"! But they hit it off immediately and were buddies. Dee even stayed with us when Jay was overseas in the Navy & Chuck was young. Later on, Jay & Dee traveled with Mom & Dad in their respective motorhomes and had wonderful times together. Dee got mad at me at our family reunion once for talking so much about diabetes and how to control it (our family has a history of diabetes and I worked as a diabetes educator). I brought a meter and strips and was checking everyone's blood sugar! She told me that she did NOT want to hear that "D" word again at the reunion! But deep down, she really was a sweetheart and I will miss my Auntie Dee terribly. I was so proud of her when she quit smoking. That had to be hard. She was one tough Cookie and there will not be another one like her, unless it's Rawling! (that's a compliment, Rawling)
Love to cousins Chuck and Anna and families, Jeri
